Canton Connection

by John Tscholl

Playing in a recent club game, Elana Steingraf found an interesting line of play to score an overtrick in her 3 NT contract of this hand:

N
♠ K Q J 10 6 ♥ - - ♦ K Q 8 4 2 ♣ A K Q J
W ♠ A 7 2 ♥ Q J 10 4 2 ♦ 7 ♣ 10 8 3	E ♠ 9 5 4 ♥ 8 7 6 5 3 ♦ A 9 5 3 ♣ 9
S
♠ 8 3 ♥ A K 9 ♦ J 10 6 ♣ 7 6 5 4 2

On the opening lead of the Queen of hearts, Elana studied the dummy for quite some time and, not wanting to pitch a spade or a diamond, eventually discarded the Ace of clubs as she won the trick in her hand with the King of hearts. She next cashed dummy's three top clubs and continued with a diamond from the dummy, ducked by East and won in her hand with the ten. She cashed her two remaining clubs (pitching spades from dummy), and continued with the jack of diamonds from her hand which held the trick. She now turned her attention to the spade suit, scored dummy's King of spades and exited with a spade to West's Ace. The heart return to her Ace gave Elana ten tricks on the hand and a five matchpoint score. There are other ways to come to ten tricks on this hand but clearly the pitching the Ace of clubs at trick one is the most spectacular. Well done, Elana.

Erie Excitement by Linda Taylor McKeever

On January 15, 2007, the Erie Bridge Center lost a dear friend and excellent player, Rosemary Martin Drew. The newspaper obituary showed Rosemary holding her beloved cats. My, how she loved her felines. She always had a funny story to relate of their antics.

We miss this warm and kind lady.

MEMORIUM: George Wolf recently passed away. George was a long time Akron bridge player who left the area in 2000 so that his family in Chicago could help care for him. He played in tournaments and many clubs in northeastern Ohio. George had been active in Unit affairs and had served on the Akron Board of Director. In addition to being an excellent player he was always pleasant. George encouraged and gave advice to many beginners. On one of his trips back from Chicago, he initiated the 70% game recognition that is given in the newsletter. All the players who knew him will fondly remember George.

Unit 111 by Cathy Marsteller

Our deepest sympathy goes to Nancy Michael and Mildred Baker Artman who each lost their husbands recently.

Jerry Johnson is still recovering from a rough bout following open heart surgery. We send our wishes for his speedy recovery. George Braun has recovered from a short stay in the hospital. Someone overheard him say that the cards he had been getting made him sick! Bern Olmstead was hospitalized for a couple weeks and has returned to the club. You never know how much you miss someone till they aren't there (especially when they are the club manager!)

Congratulations are in order to Chuck & Donna Coleman who recently celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary. Even more amazing is their winning partnership!

For those of you who missed it, it was reported in the Jan Bulletin that Brad Sevcik scored 167 points to make him 10th in his category of 20-50 in the Mini-McKenney race. Online leaders showed Flora Sniderman scored 358 Masterpoints in 2006 for 8th place. You both did a great job!

Rae Oltean achieved the status of silver life master while Robert Carroll made life master.

There is a new game in town at the South Side Club. On the 2nd & 4th Saturday of each month at 6:30 there is an individual game. There is lots of food, fun, & cards. Nancy Tripodi was "the big money winner" the last week of February!

There was a celebration and party in honor of Robert Carroll making life master. On February 9, a 15-table game was held in Warren. The food was super, but the best part was meeting Robert's family & friends. The results of that game follow:

N/S

1. Cathy Sevcik/ Rick Lemanna
2. Cathy Marsteller/ Donna Guerra
3. Bill & Shirley Shaffer
4. Virginia Knox/ Carole Johnson

E/W

1. Nancy Michael/ Paul Neidlinger
2. Robert Carroll/ Brad Sevcik
3. Vern DeJong/ Dee Bloom
4. Barb Young/ Paul Nettrou

There is also a party being held in Youngstown to honor Robert's achievements. It is being held the week after this article is submitted.

Results of the January unit game:

N/S

1. Cathy Marsteller/ Claudia Ivan
2. Marcia Davidson/ Romaine Stillson
3. Carole Johnson/ Louise Rade
4. Ron Carter/ Andrea Leonardi

E/W

1. Sally Veauthier/ Vern DeJong
2. Bill & Shirley Shaffer
3. Brenda Merkich/ Irene Lenno
4. Vera Herman/ Carol Beardmore

Results of February unit game:

N/S

1. Donna & Chuck Coleman
2. Cathy Marsteller/ Claudia Ivan
3. Paul Neidlinger/ Bill Orton
4. Marilyn Entzi/ Lynn Rafferty

E/W

1. George & Kalina Braun
2. Carol Beardmore/ Terrence Murray
3. Betty Owens/ Carole Johnson
4. Sally Veauthier/ Vern DeJong

Plan on attending the unit games on May 20 & June 17. Be there or be square!

In Jan of 2007, Sally V. reported a very strange happening at the South Side Club. She was playing with Vern who bid 6 spades, off 1 ace. The opponent led to his partner's Ace of clubs. Robert Carroll, now on lead, returned a heart. Vern, confidently with aplomb, played his Ace only to see it ruffed. It wasn't exactly clear as to what happened, but after a brief search, The Ace of hearts was found embedded in the ceiling! This only goes to show that if you can't win at bridge, you may as well add a new wrinkle!

Stay healthy & I'll see you at the bridge table.

Whistfully Yours by Bev Carter

By the time you read this column, our election of new persons to the Unit Board will have occurred at the Solon Sectional. The next time you read this column, we will tell you who they are. In the meantime, we would like to thank Bev Carter, Pat Harrison Rich LaPonza, Patricia Novak and Kermit Wolford for their 3 years of dedicated service to our Unit.

Also by the time you read this column, the Solon Sectional will be a thing of the past but you can still check out the results on our web site—Whistclub.org.

COME ONE, COME ALL!!!! A great event is coming up on Sunday, April 22nd at the Solon Party Center. It is our Annual Dinner and Charity rated bridge game. Dinner time is 1:30pm.

All new life masters from 2006 will be honored and Awards for the winners of the Ace of Clubs, Mini-McKenney, Rock, Hardies and Melamed races for 2006 will be presented. This is a fun day and everyone (whether you are a member of the Unit or not) is invited to attend.

For $20 you get a great sit down dinner and afternoon of bridge. Where can you beat a deal like that???? Reservations are required, so please call Bev Carter 330/722-8214 or email magacarter@juno.com or Barb Bacon at 440/331-8702 or by email at bcbacon@cox.net. If you need a partner, let Bev or Barb know and they will fix you up.

The All American Regional which is held from Tuesday, May 22nd through Memorial Day, Monday May 28th is a great event for both newer and experienced players. Akron is the host this year so you can expect great hospitality, along with daily lectures from area experts between sessions. Well worth mentioning is that Clarence and Martha Kistemaker and Karl Stechle playing with Raul DeLaIglesia won the trophies for the most points scored in the single session events for future life masters at the Rock and Roll Regional in January.

Ann Carpenter is in charge of caddies for the May Regional and is looking for persons age 10 and up (including grownups) to caddy. If you or your children are interested in a fun job that pays good $$$, give her a call at 330/212-3303 or by email at needtoknow@neo.rr.com. She will be happy to tell you about the hours, etc.

Congratulations to Jay Stones of Stow, Ohio who has become a Bronze Life Master and to Alice Cratcha of Painesville, Ohio for becoming a Silver Life Master.

Wonder if you know who said: “you hold a hand with 8 spades. What do you call it????? Answer: Trump!!!
Who said it.....

Patrick Spooner, who else!!!

Unit 229 lost a beloved and valuable member this past January. Margaret Hempel, a former Unit president, many time board member and owner of the New Castle Bridge Club passed away due to illness. Margaret was a great ambassador and historian for bridge in our unit. She loved to show pictures from over thirty years of bridge games and parties. If anybody has a particular story that they would like to share, please contact me by the end of April and I will include it in the next issue.

Spring is here and we've started a new tournament season. The Pittsburgh Spring sectional and the Seven Cities sectional at Cross Creek have already come and gone. Hopefully, Unit 229'ers will have had a lot of successes to be reported next issue. Several of our members did well in January at the Rock and Roll regional in Cleveland. Janice Smith and Doris Hess and their team won Bracket III of the Fri/Sat knockouts. Henry Nelson and Alex Bealles and their team came in second in Bracket II. Henry and Alex also finished second in the top bracket of the B/C/D Swiss on Sunday.

At our January Unit game, Polly Black and Alex Bealles came in first overall and Jane Crowley and Iola Croner came in first N/S. In February, Jane and Iola came in first and Marie Fanning and Helen Greenberg came in second in a game made slightly smaller because of inclement weather. Until next time, mjbalex@aol.com.

Pittsburgh Potpourri

by Mary Anne McNeirney

It is raining as I write, but I am thinking it's a healing rain; hopefully an indication that the snares of winter will be no longer this year. Spring and hope beckon. The pall over our city seems to be fading. Its finances are in better condition; the outlook for sports teams is rosy (we have a talented young Penguin team, led by the sensational Sid Crosby, a top 10 basketball team at Pitt, an exciting and promising team at Duquesne, a potential post season contender in the improved Pirates, and a likely playoff team in the Mike Tomlin coached Steelers). US AIRWAYS will build a new flight center here and they have kept the overnight and heavy maintenance work here as well. Our young mayor, Luke Raventahl, and County Executive Dan Onerato seem to be serving us well. This benign situation makes it easier to concentrate on the really important concern – bridge in the Burg.

The weather has definitely been a negative factor in Pittsburgh bridge recently. It caused the cancellation of many games at which I play. I also avoided several games that were held because of it. I even missed a Unit game which, as a Board member, I feel duty bound to attend. (Many Board members cannot routinely attend due to family obligations and job requirements, but still make tremendous contributions. Not having their talents, I make perfect attendance my most obvious Unit job – one I truly enjoy). As I play bridge at least ten times a week and will attend as long as I can get to my car (I don't do ice), I know few bridge managers made much of a profit last month. Weather was not bridge friendly.

One of the continuing realities of the Pittsburgh Bridge World is that our players are willing to travel to tournaments – sectional, regional, and national – to enjoy our favorite game. We have many snowbirds who travel to warmer areas for the winter, and others who plan winter vacations around tournaments in these areas. Four of these players recently earned their gold card. These new Life Masters are Phil Currie and Flo Tito who achieved this at the Florida Palmetto Regional, and Mary Jo Johnson and Charlene Benedict who earned this plateau at the Wilmington, NC Regional. We congratulate you on this accomplishment. Our snowbirds always return with tales of the bridge clubs in which they've competed and ideas on how we can improve. The Board welcomes and solicits these ideas because our aim remains to make the Pittsburgh Bridge experience positive and enjoyable.

It is with delight we congratulate Peggy Shivetts on her appointment to the National Goodwill Committee. Her service to our unit has been stellar. The provision of the June Greensberg Sectional is her baby, and as the legions of players who attend attest, "Fabulous is a mild word to describe it!" We thank her for enriching the bridge community.

I'm looking forward to the Memorial Day Regional. I also hope my prediction of a refreshing and beautiful spring materializes for all of us.

We are justly proud of the inclusion of four of our players in the top 500 masterpoint list in 2006. Reanette Frobouck ranked 82 in the Barry Crane Top 500 with 865 points. Bill Holt's 512 points put him in a three-way tie for places 299, 300, and 301. Bob Quinlan's 480 total earned place 366, and Bob Park came in a tie for places 443 and 444 with his 448 points. The three gentlemen are often teammates and partners. We are immensely proud of their success.
